Three Trails Camp & Retreat Center is a fresh air camp established in 1924 by The Salvation Army. Three Trails shares in the long history of Salvation Army camping, providing a safe environment for guests to escape from everyday activities to have fun, learn new skills, and deepen their relationship with Jesus Christ.
Consider being one of the 45+ individuals who will make up our Camp Staff!

Why should I work at camp this summer?

1. A paycheck
2. Job training and experience
3. Skill building/team building
4. Room and board
5. Impact a child’s life in a positive way
6. A safe, Christian environment with caring leaders
7. Lifelong friendships with others
8. Great staff shirts & use of camp amenities
9. Fun!!!

Camp provides an opportunity for learning and living with people from many different backgrounds. You will come away from this experience with memories to cherish, stories to tell, and a passion for the next summer season!

Working at Three Trails Camp can bring long hours and hard work, but the rewards are great. You will have the opportunity to make a difference in many campers’ lives.
